Carfagno Cleaning does a great job of cleaning our Kitchen & Bath showroom. They clean after hours so that our showroom is available for our Clients. Having everything clean is the only way we know that they were here. It's wonderful to have a local trustworthy business to work with.

What if success was no longer measured in terms of achievement but in terms of humility, thankfulness, wonder, a life of love and being faithful in the ordinary stuff of life? @scottsauls

To Whom May It May Concern:

Our firm was very lucky to have had Carfagno Cleaners since September of 2006.

The owner, Ken Carfagno, is quite an exceptional business man. He is friendly, caring, conscience, personable, reliable, motivated, loyal, honest, and most of all he took pride in his business and customers. In all the years I have been a business owner, Ken Carfagno was the top cleaning company we have ever had.

His cleaning was exceptional.

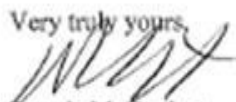

He had always informed us in advance if supplies needed to be replenished.

If he notices anything out of the ordinary, he has always left us a note.

Ken has given our firm plenty of notice that he was leaving the area. He also recommended another qualified cleaner to take over if we were interested. Knowing Ken so well, we were not only very sadden to see our cleaner "as one of our family" leave the firm but we totally understood and was glad he had an opportunity to move to be closer to his family.

We took Ken's recommendation for a replacement. When he was training our new cleaner, Ian from Albany Pure Cleaning, Ken spent quality time with him and for a long duration to ensure he not only met but exceeded our expectations, which Ian did.

If you have any questions, feel free to call me.

Very truly yours,

Dennis M. Englert
